SHARED RESPONSIBILITY FOR HIGH STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT

The School-Parent Compact outlines how parents, the entire school staff, and students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership to help children achieve the State's high standards. Section 1116 (d)

The school jointly develops with parents of Title I.A served children the school-parent compact.

The school-parent compact will

 $ule{f v}$  Describe the ways in which all parents will be responsible for supporting their children's learning. Section 1116 (d)(1)

The stakeholders meeting will allow everyone to meet and edit the Parent Compact. The Compact will be added to the Parent Handbook.

Parent Responsibilities in the current compact include:

Make sure my child is on time and prepared every day.

Know how my child is doing in school by communicating with my child's teachers. Schedule a conference with the teacher about concerns with schoolwork and behavior.

Monitor my child's schoolwork and make sure study time is quiet and productive. Check with my child daily for information sent home from school that will be useful.

Respond appropriately to all types of communication from the school.

 $\checkmark$  Describe the school's responsibility to provide high-quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment. Section 1116 (d)(1)

Ensure highly-qualified, effective staff to provide instruction.
Teacher responsibilities in current compact include:
Help determine the educational needs of your child.
Adjust the instructional program to meet the academic needs of your child.
Provide frequent assessment and continuous feedback on how your child is progressing academically.
Provide a safe and orderly school environment.
Be available to discuss your child's progress on academic work when needed.
Teacher attendance at professional learning.
Provide additional interventions through the MTSS process.

- 🗹 Addresses the importance of communication between teachers and parents on an ongoing basis through, at a minimum
  - Conducting parent-teacher conferences at least annually, during which the compact shall be discussed
  - Issuing frequent reports to parents on their children's progress
  - Providing reasonable access to staff, opportunities to volunteer, and observation of classroom activities
  - Ensuring regular two-way, meaningful communication between family members and school staff, and, in a language that family members can understand

Section 1116 (d)(2)(A) (B),(C),(D)

NEEDS ASSESSMENT: IDENTIFYING PRIORITIES

"In most schools, conducting a comprehensive needs assessment will result in the identification of a large number of issues that could be addressed to improve the achievement of students. However, no school should attempt to address every identified need in a single year. Most planning experts suggest that schools prioritize their major issues and address no more than three of the most important..."
